Wicoff House Bulletin | Fall 2022

YOUTH GROUPS >

JUNIOR HISTORIANS CLUB

This fall, the JHC will solve museum mysteries and learn about different elements of public history and historic preservation, such as architecture, archaeology, family history, etc. They will utilize the museum collections and the museum grounds to complete fun activities related to these topics. Members will receive a JHC t-shirt, a JHC membership card and a JHC log book to record all of their activities. Register for this program at the Recreation Center.

YOUTH ADVISORY COUNCIL

The YAC helps develop and execute museum events and programs, and assists with various museum/archive projects. The YAC members develop the museum's youth voice and be an advocate for the museum within Plainsboro and the surrounding community. To submit a YAC application, please visit: tinyurl.com/registryac
