GET INVOLVED

Youth Advisory Council

The YAC helps develop and execute museum events and programs, and assists with various museum/archive projects. YAC members develop the museum's youth voice and are an advocate for the museum within Plainsboro and the surrounding community. They meet on Sundays from 2-4pm. tinyurl.com/registeryac

Junior Historians Club

The JHC is back! Kids ages 6-10 meet on Saturdays from 2-4pm to learn about different elements of public history and historic preservation, such as architecture, archaeology, family history, etc. They utilize the museum collections and the museum grounds to complete fun activities related to these topics. Members receive a JHC t-shirt, a JHC membership card and a JHC log book to record all of their activities. tinyurl.com/jhc2022

Friends of the Wicoff House

The Friends is an adult volunteer group for the museum. They help develop adult programming such as lectures and workshops, and volunteer at events and programs. Contact us to volunteer or to serve as a Trustee on the Friends Board.

Jessica Cavanaugh

STAFF >

NEW PROGRAM COORDINATOR

Jessica joined the museum this year as the new Program Coordinator. She is a graduate of The College of New Jersey, where she earned a B.A. in Fine Art with concentrations in painting and photography. Her previous experience includes work in exhibition planning, creative business management, and collections cataloging with Stone Harbor Historical Museum. Jessica is excited to continue her career in Museum Leadership and help celebrate Plainsboro's rich history in collaboration with the town's youth!
